

Press Release---

Seminar on Preservation of Environment at Keonjhar

Urgent action is needed to tackle the Environmental related issues and for preservation of Environment. We need to intensify and accelerate action to save energy, save water, Save our mother earth and preserve Environment. And we need to do it by our self as well as together. These were viewed by eminent dignitaries in a two days Seminar on "Environmental Preservation" organized by People's Cultural Center(PECUC) ,a leading civil society organization of Odisha in association with Vishwa Yuvak Kendra, New Delhi at Extension Training Centre ,Keonjhar .

Purnachandra Mishra , Sub collector Keonjhar inaugurated the seminar. Inaugurating the seminar the sub collector said that "at the time when global warming is an important issue in the world organising such types of seminar really appreciable. It will help to preserve the valuable forest and environment to get relief from global warming issue.

Dr. Banabihari Mishra, expert member district level environment impact appraisal committee narrated detail about the causes and remedies of global warming issue that grip whole world now days. He also appeal the youths to come forward to fight back the situation with adopting small small practices in their house and society and to aware the remedies among others in their house and society.

Er Ripu Kumar Sahu, environment engineer,State Polution control board ,Keonjhar narrated all about the causes of environment degradation and its remedies, He also narrated the different government policies and laws implemented to protect the environment.

Giving opening remarks on the the second day Mr. Nrusingha charan Swain,Project Director,DRDA,that we need to effectively manage our natural resources in a sustainable maner ,other wise it will be create disastrous situation in future even if it will be difficult to take breath. Mr. Ranjan Kumar Mohanty Secretary chaired the session. Rajeev Nirmal, program officer of Viswa Yubak Kendra gave introductory remarks. Amongst others Prof Balaram panigrahi, HOD,Soil and conservation engineering department,OUAT, Dr Umashankar Nayak, senior scientist, Regional research training and transfer system,bhadrak, Dr sanjaya kumar mohanty, senior scientist, KVK,Balasore, DR Gayadhara Shial, forestry expert, KVK, Social activists, Academicians, CSO functionaries , Representatives of NSS of different colleges and ECO SAVERS youth network spoke on the occasion. Jyotirmayee Mohapatra, Program Manager, PECUC gave vote of thanks in the meeting.